

UPDATES

PRESS RELEASE

A Proud Platform to Assess Companies' Capabilities in the Wealth Management Industry

(Hong Kong, December 1, 2015) Winners of the annual BENCHMARK Wealth Management Awards were announced in a gala dinner ceremony on Monday November 30, 2015 at the Conrad Hotel, Hong Kong. BEST-IN-CLASS awards in 31 industry best practice categories were granted and trophies presented by a distinguished panel of judges. Now in its sixth year, the BENCHMARK Wealth Management Awards is a three-month competition examining key aspects of the wealth management industry. The competition came to an exciting conclusion on Monday night with the announcement of BEST-IN-CLASS and Outstanding Achiever winners.

One of the most coveted awards of the evening, Company of the Year-Banking, went to Citibank (Hong Kong) Limited. Ms. Angela Ng, the Country Business Manager for Citibank and leading the Citibank team this year at the awards, praised the event for bringing together people across banking and insurance to celebrate best practices. Citibank also won eight other awards that evening, including four BEST-IN-CLASS.

Company of the Year-Insurance, meanwhile, went to MetLife Limited. Mr. Lennard Yong, CEO of MetLife Limited, said, "He felt very humbled by the award." He also remarked that he was most excited about the win as it meant so much to his customers, employees, and all those people that made MetLife's success at the awards possible.

The full list of BEST-IN-CLASS and Outstanding Achiever Awardees can be DOWNLOAD HERE.

Elsa Pau, Publisher & CEO of WealthAsia Media, the organizer of the Awards, had this to say, "We are very proud to have this platform with which to assess the capabilities of companies in the wealth management industry. This year I was impressed with the quality of the submissions, and I would like to congratulate all those companies that won awards, especially those companies which make best practices part of their KPIs."

For more details on the Awards please CLICK here.

The distinguished panel of judges celebrated this prestigious awards with all winners

The team from Citibank (Hong Kong) Limited with their BENCHMARK Award for Company of the Year-Banking

The team from MetLife Limited with their BENCHMARK Award for Company of the Year-Insurance

About the Official Publication

Published since 1996, BENCHMARK is a trustworthy bi-lingual source for practical guidance on saving, investing, retirement and estate planning. With a readership reaching over 55,000, BENCHMARK is a niche publication in wealth management and personal finance circulated only at private banks and mass affluent wealth management centers. BENCHMARK's signature award series includes the BENCHMARK Wealth Management Awards, BENCHMARK Fund of the Year Awards and BENCHMARK Advisor of the Year Awards. Publication Website: www.BENCHMARK.Today

About the Organizer

WealthAsia Media (WAM) is the publisher of its flagship magazine BENCHMARK, and also the organizer of a series of best practice awards in the financial services sector, including the BENCHMARK Wealth Management Awards, BENCHMARK Advisor of the Year Awards, and BENCHMARK Fund of the Year Awards. WAM is a profit-for-purpose organization whose mission is to drive best practices in the finance community by emphasizing social responsibility and advocating for the protection of investors. Besides running its core financial services forums, WAM is also the organizer of the annual Women Extraordinaire Forum, a program that aims to empower women in Asia to fully unleash their potential. Company Website: www.WealthAsia.net | www.WealthAwards.asia

Media Enquiries

For English please contact
Edward Carroll
E: edward.carroll@wealthasia.net
D: +852 2297 3063

For Chinese please contact
Edward Leung
E: edward.leung@wealthasia.net
D: +852 3488 1417